

FSB Media Release: Regulatory examination statistics

There are 11 weeks remaining to the 30 June 2012 deadline for Financial Service Providers to write their regulatory examinations. All candidates that have not yet written the examinations are requested to do so without delay to ensure that they are accommodated on their preferred dates and times. The FSB is closely monitoring the registrations on an on-going basis and will take all necessary steps to ensure that no unnecessary disruptions are experienced in the provision of financial services.

Below please find a breakdown of the examination statistics.
