FINANCIAL SERVICES BOARD

FINANCIAL ADVISORY AND INTERMEDIARY SERVICES ACT, NO. 37 OF 2002

FAIS INFORMATION CIRCULAR 4 of 2014
DATE: 7 APRIL 2014

AMENDMENTS TO THE FINANCIAL ADVISORY AND INTERMEDIARY SERVICES ACT, 2002

1. Purpose of circular

The purpose of this information circular is to-
(a) serve as a reminder that as from 28 February 2014 all persons regulated (regulated persons) under the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002 (FAIS Act), must comply with the amendments to that Act which amendments were effected by the Financial Services Laws General Amendment Act, No. 45 of 2013 (FSLGA Act); and
(b) provide the motivation for the amendments.

2. Compliance with amended provisions of the FAIS Act

The FSLGA amended the FAIS Act and other laws administered by the Financial Services Board (FSB) and came into operation on 28 February 2014. From that date regulated persons must comply with all the amendments to the FAIS Act other than the amendment to section 13(1)(c) that has a delayed commencement date. Section 13(1)(c) of the FAIS Act only comes into operation on 28 May 2014.

It is important that regulated persons familiarize themselves with the amendments to the FAIS Act to ensure full compliance with such amendments. They must also ensure that they comply with the amendments to the other laws administered by the FSB where such laws are applicable to their activities.

3. Matrix of Amendments

The Matrix of Amendments (attached as annexure A) provides an overview of the amendments to the FAIS Act and the motivations for such amendments. Please note that the motivations listed in the Matrix are not necessarily a comprehensive list of all the motivations.

For ease of reference, the section in the first column of the Matrix refers to the corresponding section in the FSLGA (attached as annexure C).

4. Disclaimer

The information contained in the Matrix of Amendments is for general information purposes only. Please refer to the FSLGA for the specific amendments to the FAIS Act (see annexure B) for completeness. Any reliance placed on the Matrix is at your own risk. The FSB is not liable for any loss sustained or prejudice caused by a disregard of this disclaimer.

"(4) The [provisions of this Act only apply to the] rendering of a financial service in respect of a deposit referred to in paragraph (g) of the definition of 'financial product' in subsection (1) with a term not exceeding 12 months by a provider which is a bank as defined in the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), or a mutual bank as defined in the Mutual Banks Act, 1993 (Act No. 124 of 1993), or a co-operative bank as defined in the Co-operative Banks Act, 2007 (Act No. 40 of 2007), [to the extent that such application] is regulated by this Act in the code of conduct contemplated in section 15(2)(b)."

Section 2 of the Act was amended as follows:

176

Section 2: Registrar and deputy registrar of financial services providers

"The executive officer and deputy executive officer of the Board are respectively the registrar and deputy registrar of financial services providers and have the powers and duties provided for by or under this Act or any other law."

by the substitution for section 2 of the following section:

"Registrar and deputy registrar of financial services providers

2. (1) The executive officer referred to in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), is the registrar of financial services providers and has the powers and duties provided for by or under this Act and any other law.

(2) The deputy executive officer referred to in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), is the deputy registrar of financial services providers.

(3) The deputy registrar of financial services providers exercises the powers and duties of the registrar of financial service providers to the extent that such powers and duties have been delegated to the deputy registrar under section 20 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990)."

To clarify who the registrar and deputy registrar are and to clarify that the deputy registrar acts under powers delegated by the registrar. The current provision that enables both the registrar and deputy registrar to exercise the powers under the Act concurrently is not desirable as it is ambiguous and may lead to conflicting actions or decisions.

Section 4: Special provisions concerning powers of registrar

177(a)

"The registrar may by notice direct an authorised financial services provider or representative to furnish the registrar, within a specified period, with specified information or documents required by the registrar for the purposes of this Act."

by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2) The registrar may by notice direct an authorised financial services provider [or], representative or compliance officer to furnish the registrar, within a specified period, with specified information or documents required by the registrar for the purposes of this Act.;"

To extend the intervention powers of the registrar to compliance officers approved by the registrar.

177(b)

"(i) authorise any suitable person in the employ of the Board or any other suitable person to conduct an on-site visit of the business and affairs of a provider or representative to determine compliance with this Act; or" by the substitution in subsection (5) of subparagraphs (i) (ii) of the following subparagraphs:

(ii) instruct an inspector under section 3 of the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998)."

"(i) [authorise any suitable person in the employ of the Board or any other suitable person to] conduct an on-site visit [of the business and affairs of a provider or representative to determine compliance with this Act] under Chapter 1A of the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 80 of 1998); or";

(ii) instruct an inspector to conduct an inspection under [section..."
177(c)

(b) A person conducting an on-site visit in terms of paragraph (a)(i) may-
   (aa) enter the premises of the provider or representative and the provider or representative must upon request provide any document;
   (bb) search the premises of the provider or representative for any document;
   (cc) examine, make extracts from and copy any document or, against the issue of a receipt, temporarily remove the document;
   (dd) seize any document against the issue of a receipt, which may furnish proof of any failure to comply with the provisions of this Act;
   "(ii) require the provider or representative to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or documents of a specified description in the possession or under the control of the provider or;"
   (iii) require any person that is holding or is accountable for any document to provide information and an explanation of that information."

by the deletion in subsection 5 of paragraph (b).

To consolidate the powers of all the Registrars of the Acts administered by the FSB under the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 80 of 1998).

177(d)

"(6) After an on-site visit or inspection has been carried out in terms of subsection (5), the registrar may direct the provider, representative or person concerned to take any steps, or to refrain from performing or continuing to perform any act, to terminate or remedy any contravention of or failure to comply with any provision of this Act."

by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:

"(6) After an on-site visit or inspection has been carried out in terms of subsection (5), the registrar may direct the provider, representative, compliance officer or person concerned to take any steps, or to refrain from performing or continuing to perform any act, to terminate or remedy any contravention of or failure to comply with any provision of this Act: Provided that the registrar may not make an order contemplated in section 6D(2)(b) of the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 28 of 2001)."; and

To extend the intervention powers of the registrar to compliance officers approved by the registrar and to ensure that orders that can be made by the Registrar does not fall within jurisdiction of the enforcement committee.

177(e)

"(7) The Registrar may make known-
   (a) the status and outcome of an inspection;
   (b) the details of an inspection if disclosure is in the public interest;
   (c) the outcome and details of an on-site visit if disclosure is in the public interest, by notice in the Gazette or by means of any other appropriate public media.".

by the deletion of subsection (7).

To consolidate the powers of all the Registrars of the Acts administered by the FSB under the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 80 of 1998).

Section 5 of the Act was amended as follows:

To extend the intervention powers of the registrar to compliance officers approved by the registrar and to ensure that orders that can be made by the Registrar does not fall within jurisdiction of the enforcement committee.

"(6) After an on-site visit or inspection has been carried out in terms of subsection (5), the registrar may direct the provider, representative, compliance officer or person concerned to take any steps, or to refrain from performing or continuing to perform any act, to terminate or remedy any contravention of or failure to comply with any provision of this Act: Provided that the registrar may not make an order contemplated in section 6D(2)(b) of the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 28 of 2001)."; and

To extend the intervention powers of the registrar to compliance officers approved by the registrar and to ensure that orders that can be made by the Registrar does not fall within jurisdiction of the enforcement committee.

"(7) The Registrar may make known-
   (a) the status and outcome of an inspection;
   (b) the details of an inspection if disclosure is in the public interest;
   (c) the outcome and details of an on-site visit if disclosure is in the public interest, by notice in the Gazette or by means of any other appropriate public media.".
Section 5: Advisory Committee on Financial Services Providers

(1) There is an Advisory Committee on Financial Services Providers which may on its own initiative, or must at the request of the Minister or the registrar, investigate and report or advise on any matter relating to financial services providers.

(2) The Advisory Committee consists of a chairperson and other members, including a representative of the Council for Medical Schemes established by section 3 of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 (Act No. 131 of 1998), and persons representative of product suppliers, financial services providers and clients involved in the application of this Act, appointed by the Minister after consultation with the Board.

(3) The registrar is a member of the Advisory Committee by virtue of the office of the registrar, but without voting power on matters on which the registrar is to be advised by the Committee.

(4) A member of the Advisory Committee, excluding the registrar, holds office for the period determined by the Minister when the appointment is made.

(5) A member of the Advisory Committee, excluding the registrar, who is not in the full-time employment of the State or the Board must be paid such remuneration and allowances in respect of any expenses incurred in the performance of the functions of that committee, as may be determined by the Board.

(6) The Advisory Committee may meet or otherwise arrange for the performance of its functions, and may regulate its meetings as it thinks fit, after consultation with the Board.

(7) The registrar may submit to the Advisory Committee any information which is in the registrar’s possession, and which is relevant to any matter which the Committee is investigating or considering.

(8) The Advisory Committee may call to its assistance such person or persons as it may deem necessary to assist it, or to investigate matters relating to financial services providers.

(9) The registrar is responsible for the administrative work incidental to the performance of the functions of the Advisory Committee.

(10) The expenditure connected with the functions of the Advisory Committee must be paid out of the funds of the Committee.
Board, whose approval is required for all expenditure proposed to be incurred, or actually incurred, by the Committee.

(11) For the purposes of any investigation by the Advisory Committee, the provisions of the Commissions Act, 1947 (Act No. 8 of 1947), regarding the summoning and examination of persons and the administering of oaths or affirmations to them, the calling for the production of books, documents and objects, and offences by witnesses, apply with the necessary changes.

Section 6 of the Act was amended as follows:

179(a)
"(a) Any body of persons which represents a group of persons falling within the ambit of this Act, may apply to the registrar for recognition by the Board by notice in the Gazette as a representative body for the purpose of performing the functions determined by the registrar, after consultation with the Advisory Committee and the Board;".

by the substitution in subsection (4) for paragraph (a) of the following paragraph:
"(a) Any body of persons which represents a group of persons falling within the ambit of this Act, may apply to the registrar for recognition by the Board by notice [in the Gazette] on the official web site as a representative body for the purpose of performing the functions determined by the registrar, after consultation with the Advisory Committee and the Board;".

To remove the reference to the Advisory Committee and to replace references to "in the Gazette" with "on the official web site" to clarify that notification of official acts may be done via the web site of the FSB. This amendment is consistent with section 15 of the Interpretation Act.

179(b)
"must be made in the manner determined by the registrar by notice in the Gazette;".

by the substitution in subsection (4)(b) for subparagraph (i) of the following subparagraph:
"(i) must be made in the manner determined by the registrar by notice [in the Gazette] on the official web site;".

To replace references to "in the Gazette" with "on the official web site" to clarify that notification of official acts may be done via the web site of the FSB. This amendment is consistent with section 15 of the Interpretation Act.

The Act was amended by the insertion of a new section 6A that provides as follows:

   (a) keep a full and correct record of all funds received and payments made, and of all assets, liabilities and financial transactions of the Office;

   (b) as soon as is practicable, but not later than three months after the end of every financial year, prepare annual financial statements reflecting, with appropriate particulars, all funds received and payments made during, and all such assets, liabilities and transactions at the end of, the relevant financial year.

by the substitution for subsections (1) and (2) of the following subsections, respectively:

(1) The Ombud Despite the provisions of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999), the board of the Financial Services Board as defined in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), is the accounting officer in respect of all funds received and all payments made in respect of expenses incurred by authority of the Office.

(2) The Ombud as accounting officer authority must—

   (a) keep a full and correct record of all funds received and payments made, and of all assets, liabilities and financial transactions of the Office;

   (b) as soon as is practicable, but not later than three months after the end of every financial year, prepare annual financial statements reflecting, with appropriate particulars, all funds received and payments made during, and all such assets, liabilities and transactions at the end of, the relevant financial year comply with the Public Finance Management Act.”.

To determine who the accounting authority for the FAIS ombud is and to clarify that the accounting authority must comply with the PFMA.

194 Section 26 of the Act was amended as follows:

"The Board may, after consultation with the Advisory Committee, make rules, including different rules in respect of different categories of complaints or investigations by the Ombud, regarding—".

by the substitution in subsection (1) for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words:

"The Board may[, after consultation with the Advisory Committee,] make rules, including different rules in respect of different categories of complaints or investigations by the Ombud, regarding—".

To remove the reference to the Advisory Committee.

195 Section 33 of the Act was amended as follows:

(1) The registrar may, when satisfied on the basis of available facts and information that a person has contravened or not complied with any provision of this Act, or is likely so to contravene or not to comply, apply to a Court for an order restraining such person from continuing to commit any such act or omission or from committing it in future, and requiring the person to take such remedial steps as the Court deems necessary to rectify the consequences of the act or omission, including consequences which prejudiced or may prejudice any client.

(2) The registrar may institute action in a Court against any person who has contravened or not complied with any provision of this Act, for payment of-

(a) an amount determined by the Court as compensation for losses suffered by any other person in consequence of such contravention or non-compliance;

(b) a penalty for punitive purposes in a sum determined in the discretion of the Court;

(c) interest; and

(d) costs of suit on such scale as may be determined by the Court.

(3) Any amount recovered by the registrar in terms of subsection (2) must be deposited by the registrar directly into a specially designated trust account established by the registrar with an appropriate financial institution, and thereupon-

(a) the registrar is, as a first charge against the trust account, entitled to reimbursement of all expenses reasonably incurred in bringing proceedings under subsection (2) and in administering the distributions made to persons in terms of subsection (5);

(b) the balance, if any (hereinafter referred to as the “distributable balance”) must be distributed by the registrar to the persons referred to in subsection (5), any funds remaining, accruing to the registrar in the registrar’s official capacity.

(4) Any amount not claimed within three years from the date of the first distribution of payments, accruing to the registrar in the registrar’s official capacity.

(5) The distributable balance must be distributed on a pro rata basis—

(a) to all persons who prove to the reasonable satisfaction of the registrar that they are persons who suffered losses as contemplated in subsection (2); and

(b) to the extent of the losses contemplated in

(2) The registrar may make an application under section 131 of the Companies Act in respect of a provider if the registrar is satisfied that it is in the interests of the clients of the provider or the financial services industry.

(3) The following acts are subject to the approval of the registrar:
   (a) the resolution of a provider to begin business rescue proceedings;
   (b) the appointment of a business rescue practitioner;
   (c) the adoption of a business rescue plan; and
   (d) the exercise of a power by the business rescue practitioner under the Companies Act.

(4) in the application of Chapter 6 of the Companies Act—
   (a) any reference to the Commission shall be construed as a reference also to the registrar;
   (b) the reference to creditors shall be construed as a reference also to clients of the provider;
   (c) any reference relating to the ability of a provider to pay all debts shall be construed as relating also to the provider’s inability to comply with the financial soundness requirement under section 8(1)(c) of this Act;
   (d) there shall be considered, in addition to any question relating to the business of a provider, also the question whether any cause of action is in the interests of the clients.

(5) If an application to a Court for an order relating to the business rescue of a provider is made by an affected person other than the registrar—
   (a) the application shall not be heard unless copies of the notice of motion and of all accompanying affidavits and other documents filed in support of the application are lodged with the registrar, before the application is set down for hearing;
   (b) the registrar may, if satisfied that the application is not in the interests of the clients of the provider, join the application as a party and file affidavits and other documents in opposition to the application.

Application by registrar for sequestration or liquidation

38B. (1) Subsection to subsection (3), if the registrar, after an on-site visit in terms of section 4(5) or an inspection in terms of the inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998), considers that the interests of the clients of a financial services provider or of members of the public so require, the registrar may apply to the Court for the sequestration or liquidation of that provider, whether or not the provider is solvent, in accordance with—

(a) the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936);
(b) the Companies Act;
(c) the Close Corporations Act, 1984 (Act No. 69 of 1984); or
(d) the law under which that provider is incorporated.

(2) In deciding an application contemplated in subsection (1), the Court—

(a) may take into account whether sequestration or liquidation of the financial services provider concerned is reasonably necessary—

(i) in order to protect the interests of the clients of the provider; and

(ii) for the integrity and stability of the financial sector;

(b) may make an order concerning the manner in which claims may be proved by clients of the financial services provider concerned; and

(c) shall appoint as trustee or liquidator a person nominated by the registrar.

(3) This section does not apply if another registrar is authorised in terms of Financial Services Board legislation as defined in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), or in terms of banking legislation, to apply to the court for the sequestration or liquidation of that provider.

Directives

38C. (1) The registrar may, in order to ensure compliance with or to prevent a contravention of this Act, issue a directive to any person or persons to whom the provisions of this Act apply.

(2) A directive issued in terms of subsection (1) may—

(a) apply generally; or

(b) be limited in its application to a particular person or category of persons.

(3) A directive issued in terms of subsection (1) takes effect on the date determined by the registrar in the directive.

Section 388: To grant the registrar locus standi to apply to court for the sequestration or winding-up of a financial services provider.

Section 38C: To authorise the registrar to issue directives to ensure compliance with the Act.
Section 40 of the Act was amended as follows:

40. No provision of this Act, and no act performed under or in terms of any such provision, may be construed as affecting any right of a client, or other affected person, to seek appropriate legal redress in terms of common law or any other statutory law, and whether relating to civil or criminal matters, in respect of the rendering of any financial service by an authorised financial services provider, or representative of such provider, or any act of a person who is not an authorised financial services provider or a representative of such a provider.

by the substitution of the following section for section 40:

"Saving of rights

40. No provision of this Act, and no act performed under or in terms of any such provision, may be construed as affecting any right of a client, or other affected person, to seek appropriate legal redress in terms of this Act, the common law or any other statutory law, and whether relating to civil or criminal matters, in respect of the rendering of any financial service by an authorised financial services provider, or representative of such provider, or any act of a person who is not an authorised financial services provider or a representative of such a provider."

To rectify the omission of a reference to this Act in this section.

Section 41 of the Act was amended as follows:

(b) The fees are payable in the manner, and are subject to the requirements, determined by the registrar by notice in the Gazette.

by the substitution in subsection (1) for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:

(b) The fees are payable in the manner, and are subject to the requirements, determined by the registrar by notice [in the Gazette] on the official website.

To amend the requirements in respect of publication.

Section 45 of the Act was amended as follows:

(a) The registrar may in any case not provided for in this Act, on reasonable ground, on application or on the registrar's own initiative by notice in the Gazette, exemption any person or category of persons from any provision of this Act.

by the substitution in subsection (4) for paragraph (a) of the following paragraph:

(a) The registrar may in any case not provided for in this Act, on reasonable ground, on application or on the registrar’s own initiative by notice [in the Gazette] on the official website, exemption any person or category of persons from any provision of this Act.

180. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 6:

"Fit and proper requirements

6A. (1) The registrar, for purposes of this Act, by notice in the Gazette—

(a) must—

(i) classify financial services providers into different categories;
(ii) determine fit and proper requirements for each category of providers; and
(iii) in each category of providers determine fit and proper requirements for—

(aa) key individuals of providers;
(bb) representatives of providers;
(cc) key individuals of representatives of providers; and
(dd) compliance officers; and

(b) may determine fit and proper requirements for providers, key individuals, representatives, key individuals of representatives and compliance officers in general.

(2) Fit and proper requirements may include, but are not limited to, appropriate standards relating to—

(a) personal character qualities of honesty and integrity;
(b) competence, including—

(i) experience;
(ii) qualifications; and
(iii) knowledge tested through examinations determined by the registrar;

(c) operational ability;
(d) financial soundness; and
(e) continuous professional development.

(3) Different fit and proper requirements may be determined for providers, representatives and compliance officers that are natural persons and for those that are partnerships, trusts or corporate or unincorporated bodies.

(4) The registrar may, by notice in the Gazette, amend the fit and proper requirements from time to time, and a provider, key individual, representative, key individual of a representative and compliance officer must comply therewith within such period as determined by the registrar.”.

Amendment of section 7 of Act 37 of 2002, as amended by section 47 of Act 22 of 2008

181. Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

"(1) With effect from a date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, a person may not act or offer to act as a—

(a) financial services provider, unless such person has been issued with a licence under section 8; or

(b) a representative, unless such person has been appointed as a representative of an authorised financial services provider under section 13.”.

Amendment of section 8 of Act 37 of 2002, as amended by section 48 of Act 22 of 2008

182. Section 8 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) An application for an authorisation referred to in section 7(1), including an application by an applicant not domiciled in the Republic, must be submitted to the registrar in the form and manner determined by the registrar by notice [in the Gazette] on the official web site, and be accompanied by information to satisfy the registrar that the applicant complies with the fit and proper requirements determined for [fit and proper] financial services providers or categories of providers, determined by the registrar by notice in the Gazette, [after consultation with the Advisory Committee], in respect of—

(a) personal character qualities of honesty and integrity;
(b) [the] competence [and operational ability of the applicant to fulfil the responsibilities imposed by this Act]; and
(bA) operational ability; and
(c) [the applicant's] financial soundness;

Provided that where the applicant is a partnership, a trust or a corporate or unincorporated body, the applicant must, in addition, so satisfy the registrar that any key individual in respect of the applicant complies with the said requirements in respect of—

(i) personal character qualities of honesty and integrity;
(ii) competence and operational ability,

to the extent required in order for such key individual to fulfil the responsibilities imposed on the key individual by this Act.

(b) by the insertion after subsection (1) of the following subsection:

"(1A) If the applicant is a partnership, trust or corporate or unincorporated body, the requirements in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) do not apply to the applicant, but in such a case the application must be accompanied by additional information to satisfy the registrar that every person who acts as a key individual of the applicant complies with the fit and proper requirements for key individuals in the category of financial services providers applied for, in respect of—

(a) personal character qualities of honesty and integrity;
(b) competence; and
(c) operational ability,

to the extent required in order for such key individual to fulfil the responsibilities imposed by this Act."

(c) by the substitution in subsection (2) for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:

"(b) take into consideration any other information regarding the applicant or proposed key individual of the applicant, derived from whatever source, including the Ombud and any other regulatory or supervisory authority, if such information is disclosed to the applicant and the latter is given a reasonable opportunity to respond thereto."

(d) by the substitution in subsection (3) for paragraphs (a) and (b) of the following paragraphs, respectively:

'(a) if grant the application if the registrar—

(i) is satisfied that [an] the applicant [complies] and its key individual or key individuals comply with the requirements of this Act, grant the application; and

(ii) approves the key individual or key individuals of the applicant, in the case of a partnership, trust or corporate or unincorporated body; or

(b) if not so satisfied,] refuse the application if the registrar—

(i) is not satisfied that the applicant and its key individual or key individuals comply with the requirements of this Act; or

(ii) does not approve the key individual or key individuals of the applicant in the case of a partnership, trust or corporate or unincorporated body."

(e) by the substitution in subsection 4(a) for subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) of the following subparagraphs, respectively:

"(iii) the category of financial services providers in which the applicant [will be] is classified [in relation to the fit and proper requirements mentioned in subsection (1)] for the purposes of this Act; and

(iv) [any guidelines provided to the registrar by the Advisory Committee or the Board] the category or subcategory of financial products in respect of which the applicant could appropriately render or wishes to render financial services.";

(f) by the substitution in subsection (4)(b) for subparagraph (iii) of the following paragraph:

"(iii) any change occurs in the personal circumstances of a key individual which [affects the fit and proper requirements mentioned in subsection (1) and] renders or may render such person to be no longer [a fit and proper person] compliant with the fit and proper requirements for key individuals.";

(g) by the substitution in subsection (4)(b) for the words following subparagraph (iii) of the following words:

"no such person may be permitted to take part in the conduct or management or oversight of the licensee’s business in relation to the rendering of financial services, unless such person has on application been approved by the registrar as compliant with the fit and proper requirements for key individuals, in the manner and in accordance with a procedure determined, after consultation with the Advisory Committee, by the registrar by notice [in the Gazette] on the official web site;"

(h) by the substitution in subsection (5)(a) for the words preceding subparagraph (i) of the following words:

"Where an application for authorisation is granted, the registrar must issue to the applicant—";

(i) by the substitution in subsection (5)(b) for subparagraph (ii) of the following paragraph:

Insertion of sections 38A, 38B and 38C in Act 37 of 2002

201. The following sections are hereby inserted in the principal Act after section 38:

"Business rescue

38A. (1) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Companies Act or any other law under which a provider is incorporated, Chapter 6 of the Companies Act shall, subject to this section and with the necessary changes, apply in relation to the business rescue of a provider, whether or not it is a company.

(b) This section does not apply if another registrar is authorised in terms of Financial Services Board legislation as defined in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), or in terms of banking legislation, to make an application for the business rescue of a provider.

(2) The registrar may make an application under section 131 of the Companies Act in respect of a provider if the registrar is satisfied that it is in the interests of the clients of the provider or the financial services industry.

(3) The following acts are subject to the approval of the registrar:

(a) The resolution of a provider to begin business rescue proceedings;

(b) the appointment of a business rescue practitioner;

(c) the adoption of a business rescue plan; and

(d) the exercise of a power by the business rescue practitioner under the Companies Act.

(4) In the application of Chapter 6 of the Companies Act—

(a) any reference to the Commission shall be construed as a reference also to the registrar;

(b) the reference to creditors shall be construed as a reference also to clients of the provider;

(c) any reference relating to the ability of a provider to pay all debts, shall be construed as relating also to the provider’s inability to comply with the financial soundness requirement under section 8(1)(c) of this Act;

(d) there shall be considered, in addition to any question relating to the business of a provider, also the question whether any cause of action is in the interests of the clients.

(5) If an application to a Court for an order relating to the business rescue of a provider is made by an affected person other than the registrar—

(a) the application shall not be heard unless copies of the notice of motion and of all accompanying affidavits and other documents filed in support of the application are lodged with the registrar, before the application is set down for hearing;

(b) the registrar may, if satisfied that the application is not in the interests of the clients of the provider, join the application as a party and file affidavits and other documents in opposition to the application.

(6) As from the date upon which a business rescue practitioner is appointed, the business rescue practitioner of a provider shall not conduct any new business unless the practitioner has been granted permission to do so by a court.
Application by registrar for sequestration or liquidation

38B. (1) Subject to subsection (3), if the registrar, after an on-site visit in terms of section 4(5) or an inspection in terms of the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998), considers that the interests of the clients of a financial services provider or of members of the public so require, the registrar may apply to the court for the sequestration or liquidation of that provider, whether or not the provider is solvent, in accordance with—

(a) the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936);
(b) the Companies Act;
(c) the Close Corporations Act, 1984 (Act No. 69 of 1984); or
(d) the law under which that provider is incorporated.

(2) In deciding an application contemplated in subsection (1), the court—

(a) may take into account whether sequestration or liquidation of the financial services provider concerned is reasonably necessary—
   (i) in order to protect the interests of the clients of the provider; and
   (ii) for the integrity and stability of the financial sector;
(b) may make an order concerning the manner in which claims may be proved by clients of the financial services provider concerned; and
(c) shall appoint as trustee or liquidator a person nominated by the registrar.

(3) This section does not apply if another registrar is authorised in terms of Financial Services Board legislation as defined in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), or in terms of banking legislation, to apply to the court for the sequestration or liquidation of that provider.

Directives

38C. (1) The registrar may, in order to ensure compliance with or to prevent a contravention of this Act, issue a directive to any person or persons to whom the provisions of this Act apply.

(2) A directive issued in terms of subsection (1) may—

(a) apply generally; or
(b) be limited in its application to a particular person or category of persons.

(3) A directive issued in terms of subsection (1) takes effect on the date determined by the registrar in the directive.

(4) In the event of a departure from section 3(2) or 4(1), (2) or (3) of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act (Act No. 3 of 2000), the directive must include a statement to that effect and the reasons for such departure.

(5) The registrar must, where a directive is issued to ensure the protection of the public in general, publish the directive on the official web site and any other media that the registrar deems appropriate, in order to ensure that the public may easily and reliably access the directive.”.

Substitution of section 40 of Act 37 of 2002

202. The following section is hereby substituted for section 40 of the principal Act:

“Saving of rights

48. No provision of this Act, and no act performed under or in terms of any such provision, may be construed as affecting any right of a client, or other affected person, to seek appropriate legal redress in terms of this Act, the common law or any other statutory law, and whether relating to civil or criminal matters, in respect of the rendering of any financial service by an authorised financial services provider, or representative of such provider, or
