SCHEDULE

EXEMPTION OF INDEPENDENT INTERMEDIARIES FROM REGULATION 8.2(2) OF THE REGULATIONS UNDER THE LONG-TERM INSURANCE ACT, 1998 (ACT NO. 52 OF 1998)

1. Definitions

In this Schedule “the Act” means the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 52 of 1998), and any word or expression to which a meaning is assigned in the Act bears, subject to context, that meaning unless otherwise defined, and -

“Authority” means the Financial Sector Conduct Authority as defined in section 1(1) of the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017 (Act No. 9 of 2017); and “Regulation” refers to the Regulations made under section 72 of the Act promulgated by GN R.1493 in Government Gazette 19495 of 27 November 1998 and amended from time to time.

2. Extent and Duration of Exemption

- (1) Independent intermediaries are hereby exempted from Regulation 8.2(2) insofar as it relates to receiving, holding or in any other manner dealing with premiums payable to a long-term insurer.
- (2) The exemption referred to in subparagraph (1) is subject thereto that the –
  - (a) rendering of services as an intermediary is not the primary business of the independent intermediary;
  - (b) the long-term policy in respect of which the independent intermediary receives, holds or deals with premium is ancillary or consequential to another existing commercial agreement between the intermediary and the policyholder, other than an agreement related to the rendering of services as intermediary;
  - (c) premium received, held or dealt with by the independent intermediary is ancillary to and forms part of the collection of monies payable to the intermediary in respect of the commercial agreement referred to in subparagraph (b);
  - (d) independent intermediary –
    - (i) accounts to the relevant long-term insurer for any premiums received properly and promptly;
    - (ii) ensures that the relevant bank account into which the premiums are received is used solely for the collection of monies payable to the independent intermediary in respect of a commercial agreement referred to in subparagraph (b) and insurance premiums payable to the long-term insurer;
    - (iii) ensures that the long-term insurer has access to current, accurate and complete data held by the independent intermediary regarding any of the long-term insurer’s policyholders, as and when requested; and
    - (iv) promptly advise the Authority of any change in circumstances that may have an impact on this exemption.
- (3) This exemption automatically lapses upon the independent intermediary’s failure to comply with any conditions referred to in subparagraph (2).
- (4) This exemption, subject to paragraph 3, will be valid for a period of 2 years from the effective date.

3. Amendment and withdrawal of Exemption

This Exemption is subject to -

- (1) amendment thereof published by the Authority by notice on the web site of the Authority;
and
- (2) withdrawal in a like manner.

4. Short title and commencement

This Notice is called the Exemption of Independent Intermediaries from the Regulations under the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998, and comes into effect on [insert date of publication] 2020.
